TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

The Thames Embankment is one of the finest promenades in London, and was constructed in 1870. Public gardens line the greater part of the north side of the road, behind which are palatial hotels and magnificent public buildings. The picture shows Waterloo Bridge and Cleopatra's Needle, the latter a 3,000 year old Egyptian monument, transported to England in 1877 by the generosity and enterprise of Sir Erasmus Wilson.
